

Educational programme for all ASHA, Anganwadi and Health workers of Narasingapur Block, Cuttack, Odisha.(10.03.2016)

UTKAL KIDNEY FOUNDATION was conducted a educational programme for all ASHA, Anganwadi and Healthworkers of Narasinghapur Block Champeswar, Narasinghapur, Cuttack District, Odisha.

Mr. Jagan Kumar Jena senior active member of Utkal Kidney Foundation welcome all guest present in the programme.

Dr. Nisith Kumar Mohanty Director, Utkal Kidney Foundation explained about causes, Preliminary diagnosis, prevention and treatment available for Kidney disease. Mrs. Sunita Sahoo Chief Dietician, Apollo Hospital deliver some useful tips about diet for kidney disease patients.

Hon'ble Industry & Education Minister Sj. Debi Prasad Mishra, Sj. Prafulla Kumar Behera (CDMO, Cuttack, Odisha.) , Sj. Pranav Pattnaik (Director, Non Communicable Disease, Government of Odisha.), Dr. Pravas acharya(Life time member, Lokasevaka Mandal were also present in this occasion.

There were about 400 ASHA, Anganwadi and Health workers that attended the program. Odiya Kidney book and information brochures were distributed.

We thank Mr.Bijay Kumar Panda(Journalist The Pioneer), Sj. Prafulla Kumar Behera (CDMO, Cuttack, Odisha.) and marketing Dep. Apollo Hospital, Bhubaneswar for their kind support in organizing this awareness session and also thank all the ASHA, Anganwadi and Helathworkers for their support in making this program a grand success.